AUGUST 2 AMY GALLATIN & THE HOT FLASHES WITH STILLWATERS

Amy Gallatin & The Hot Flashes, have created a musical dynamic that only years of experience can envision. Their combined talents give a reimagined take on a mixed genre of songs including folk, bluegrass, swing, and even cowgirl tunes; all blended with perfectly seasoned harmonies and charm. Amy has shared the stage with many A-List bluegrass artists and fronts the band Stillwaters. Peggy Ann Harvey, multi-instrumentalist, and founding member of the former Traver Hollow Band, and award winning singer/songwriter, Gail Wade complete the trio. Add in a few dance tunes, the “secret sauce”, the extraordinary Stillwaters, and you have music to satisfy every taste. Legendary New England dobro veteran Roger Williams, mandolin virtuoso, J.D. Williams, John Urbanik on double bass and Amy Gallatin comprise Stillwaters.

AUGUST 9 CHRISTINE OHLMAN W/ REBEL MONTEZ

Christine Ohlman is the “Beehive Queen”, musicologist and long-time vocalist with the SNL band, Christine has earned her reputation as the artist who will maximize any performance with her legendary voice and electrifying stage presence.

Her resume’ reads like the “Who’s Who” of blues, rock and soul royalty and is matched by respective awards; among them, induction into the National Blues Hall of Fame. Mixing a fiery blend of “rootsy” Americana with old school soul, Ohlman, with her long time collaborator Rebel Montez, tells her audiences, “I’ve come to set your souls on fire... and she will.

MOTO

Moto plays a mix of styles including Reggae, Calypso, Soca (think Hot, Hot, Hot), and their own interpretations of Pop and R&B material; all with an island feel. With steel drums and island rhythms, the music is perfect for warm summer nights, sunsets and happy crowds. Their approach to the music is to keep it fresh and exciting, creating spontaneous “mash-ups” to share with the audience.

AUGUST 23 THE LOCOMOTIVES.

The Locomotives, One of East Haddam’s Gems, is a power house trio with Anthony Valentino, guitar and vocals, Ray White bassist extraordinaire and Paul Zemieneski’s solid rhythm and searing vocals. Their play list includes a variety of rock n roll, folk, and blues spanning 4 decades. With tight harmonies and matching musicianship, they deliver a spirited, satisfying performance.

AUGUST 23 THE CENTERLINE BAND

The Centerline Band makes their debut appearance on the MOTR stage playing a Hot Mix of Classic Rock, Blues, and Country. The band features an amalgam of some of Connecticut’s finest musicians: Brien Debari fronting the band with vocals and hot guitar licks, Anthony Nero, driving the rhythm on bass and vocals, Tom Moran, drums and vocals, and Johnny Russell, harmonica and audience participation master. The band members have played many top CT and New England venues as members of former bands including L&B All Star Review, TireBiter, The Modeans, Basically Blues, and Small Pond All Stars.
